

Alexandra L. Kovalchick
Partner

"My goal is to be straightforward with my clients and to listen to their specific needs and goals. Whether it is litigation or settlement, I discuss the pros and cons of each option with the client to empower them with the information they need to understand the process and possible complexities of their case."

Aggressive, yet practical and creative in her law practice, Alexandra L. Kovalchick connects with clients, identifies their goals and plans effective legal strategies.

Future-Focused Representation

Alex believes in direct communication with clients to provide information and insight to empower them to make the best decisions for their future. Understanding the weight of issues impacting a client's family and finances, Alex ensures an understanding of the process and the consequences and benefits of each choice. She uses her 15 years of dedicated family law experience to help each client envision their future and devise the best route to get there.

Committed to Serve

Alex is active in the local legal community as a member of both the Allegheny County and Pennsylvania bar associations' family law sections, and as a fellow in the Allegheny County Bar Foundation. Most recently, she was elected to serve as the family law representative of the ACBA Judiciary Committee.
