

Elisabeth W. Molnar
Partner

"I get tremendous satisfaction from breaking down complex problems — whether helping a business owner detangle their personal and professional assets in an equitable distribution case or managing multiple expert witnesses in a contentious custody dispute. I simplify issues, working toward complete resolution in a controlled manner to reduce stress for my clients."

Accomplished litigator and certified collaborative law attorney Elisabeth W. Molnar manages the most complex divorce, support and custody cases with skill and compassion.

Attentive Advocate

Elisabeth W. Molnar brings 20 years of dedicated family law experience and an enthusiasm for helping families through difficult transitions to her practice at Pollock Begg. She complements her background and skill in civil litigation with certification in collaborative law, providing clients with representation options to meet their unique needs and circumstances. Whether litigating a case or negotiating a settlement, Elisabeth prides herself on responsive representation, openly communicating with clients and building trust at every stage of the legal process.

Community Champion

Throughout her career, Elisabeth has leveraged her legal expertise to help children and families in need. She served as chair of the Allegheny County Bar Association's Family Law Section for two years and served as co-chair of its Children's Issues Subcommittee, exploring the psychological and developmental impact of family court disputes on children. She also previously served on the board of directors of the Pittsburgh Pro Bono Partnership, working to increase attorney and paralegal pro bono work and nurture creative efforts to provide services to charities and individuals with limited means.
