

Aubrey M. Milloy
Associate

"I chose family law to make an immediate, impactful impression on my client's lives, ensuring their voices are heard in the present and their interests are protected in the future."

Pittsburgh family lawyer Aubrey M. Milloy navigates complex cases with a tenacious yet communicative and respectful approach.

Diligent Advocate

A former collegiate athlete, Aubrey channels her discipline, adaptability, perseverance, resilience and competitive drive to her practice, providing zealous advocacy and effective representation in divorce and custody cases.

Prior to joining Pollock Begg as a law clerk in 2023, Aubrey applied her skill in legal research to the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas Family Division, serving as judicial extern to the Honorable Kim D. Eaton and as a judicial intern to the Honorable Jennifer S. McCrady.

Compassionate Communicator

Seeking to listen and understand their needs and positions, Aubrey strives to help clients navigate legal challenges with dignity and respect.

Desiring to make a significant impact that improves clients' lives, she works toward resolutions that protect her clients' interests and prepare them for the future.

Awards, Recognition and Memberships

- Member, Allegheny County Bar Association
- Member, ACBA Women in Law Division
- Member, ACBA Young Lawyers Division
- Member, Duquesne Kline School of Law Family Law Clinic
- Member, Duquesne Kline School of Law Family Law Society
- Member, Duquesne Kline School of Law First Generation Society
- Member, Pi Sigma Alpha, National Political Science Honor Society
- Member, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity International